

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EMPLOYEES

20 January 2022

non-legislative

PURPOSE

All City of Adelaide (CoA) employees must comply with the provisions of this Code in carrying out their functions as public officials. It is the personal responsibility of CoA employees to ensure that they are familiar, and comply, with the standards in the Code at all times. For the purposes of this document the term 'employee' refers to all CoA employees including subsidiaries and casuals.

For the purposes of this document, all temporary labour hire personnel engaged through external agencies are expected to behave in accordance with this Code while performing their duties for the City of Adelaide.

This Code does not exclude the operation of the Fair Work Act 1994, the rights of employees and their Unions to pursue industrial claims, or any relevant Awards or Enterprise Agreements made under the Fair Work Act 1994. This Code does not affect the jurisdiction of the South Australian Employment Tribunal.

STATEMENT

CoA employees have a commitment to serve the best interests of the people within the community the Council represents and to discharge their duties conscientiously and to the best of their ability.

CoA employees will act honestly in every aspect of their work and be open and transparent when making decisions or providing advice to their Council.

Council employees will perform their official duties in such a manner as to ensure that public confidence and trust in the integrity and impartiality of their Council is strong.

CoA employees will respect the law, and the resolutions made by the elected member body of the Council.

The Chief Executive Officer will make reasonable endeavours to ensure that employees have current knowledge of both statutory requirements and best practices relevant to their position.

CoA employees will make reasonable endeavours to ensure that they have such current knowledge of both statutory requirements and best practices relevant to their position as is drawn to their attention by the organisation.

Nothing in this Code in any way derogates from the rights of a CoA employee or duties of an employer under the Fair Work Act 1994, other legislation, an award, an industrial agreement, or contract of employment.

Appendix

Criminal Matters

The matters within this appendix are matters for which a criminal penalty attaches. As separate legislation operates to cover such conduct, this part does not form part of the Code of Conduct for CoA Employees.

Allegations of conduct breaching these matters will be investigated in accordance with the legislation governing that conduct and they are included within this document only in order to provide a complete overview of the standards of conduct and behaviour expected of CoA employees.

Alleged breaches of matters outlined in this appendix should be reported to the Office for Public Integrity in the first instance.

Breaches of the Local Government Act 1999

Provision of false information

A CoA employee who submits a return under Chapter 7 Part 4 Division 2 (Register of Interests) and that is to the knowledge of the employee false or misleading in a material particular (whether by reason of information included in or omitted from the return) is guilty of an offence (Section 117).

Restrictions on disclosure

A CoA employee must not disclose to any other person any information furnished pursuant to Chapter 7 Part 4 Division 2 (Register of Interests) unless the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the preparation or use of the Register by the Chief Executive Officer or is made at a meeting of the Council, a Council committee, or a subsidiary of the Council (Section 119(1)).

Conflict of Interest

Where the Chief Executive Officer has an interest in a matter in relation to which he or she is required or authorised to act in the course of official duties must disclose the interest to the Council and must not, unless the Council otherwise determines during a Council meeting that is open to the public, act in relation to the matter (Section 120(1)).

An employee of the City of Adelaide (other than the Chief Executive Officer) who has an interest in a matter in relation to which he or she is required or authorised to act in the course of official duties must disclose the interest to the Chief Executive Officer and must not, unless the Chief Executive Officer otherwise determines, act in relation to the matter (Section 120(2)).

If a CoA employee is entitled to act in relation to a matter and the employee is providing advice or making recommendations to the Council or a Council committee on the matter, the CoA employee must also disclose the relevant interest to the Council or Council committee (Section 120(4)).

Breaches of other Acts

Acting in his or her capacity as a public officer, a CoA employee shall not engage in conduct, whether within, or outside the state, that constitutes corruption in public administration as defined by Section 5 of the Independent Commissioner Against Corruption Act 2012, including:

- An offence against Part 7 Division 4 (Offences relating to public officers) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935, which includes the following offences:
- bribery or corruption of public officers
- threats or reprisals against public officers
- abuse of public office
- demanding or requiring benefit on basis of public office
- offences relating to appointment to public office.

Any other offence, including an offence against Part 5 (Offences of dishonesty) of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935, committed by a public officer while acting in his or her capacity as a public officer, or by a former public officer and related to his or her former capacity as a public officer, or by a person before becoming a public officer and related to his or her capacity as a public officer, or to an attempt to commit such an offence.

Any of the following in relation to an offence referred to in a preceding paragraph:

- aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of the offence
- inducing, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, the commission of the offence
- being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the commission of the offence
- conspiring with others to effect the commission of the offence.
