

Musée Extérieur (Outdoor Museum)

A European art trail on the walls of Adelaide

Musée Extérieur is a curated, outdoor art trail that winds through the beautiful and surprising spaces of North Adelaide.

The trail begins on King William Road, travels along and between the many nooks and crannies of historic Melbourne Street, along O'Connell Street and the Park Lands.

Get up close and personal with life-size reproductions of European Master paintings from as early as the 15th century, from the collections of the Thomas Henry Museum in Cherbourg-en-Cotentin, France.

Follow the trail with the map on the reverse and visit cityofadelaide.com.au/outdoor-museum for detailed descriptions of artworks.
