HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION:

This house is a good example of an 1880s masonry residence with a double hipped roof along the front elevation. It retains important stylistic elements including rendered facings to windows and doors, verandah and eaves brackets.

Town Acre 895 was not subdivided at the time of the Smith Survey in 1880 and was subsequently developed during the decade following. This house remains an important indication of the type of residences constructed at that time, and the use of masonry as a building material.

STATEMENT OF HERITAGE VALUE:

This house is an important example of the type of residences constructed in North Adelaide during the 1880s, and reflects the design, details and building materials commonly in use at that time.

The significant number of stone and brick residences, like this house, constructed between 1870 and 1890 throughout this section of the city, are an important element of the distinctive historic residential character of North Adelaide.

RELEVANT CRITERIA (under Section 23(4) of the Development Act, 1993):

- (a) This house displays historical and social themes that are of importance to North Adelaide as it represents the continued construction of residences on recently subdivided Town Acres, particularly during the 1870s-1880s.
- (d) This asymmetrically fronted house displays aesthetic merit and design characteristics of significance to North Adelaide as it is a typical 1870s-1880s Victorian residence displaying consistent use of materials such masonry walls and detailed render.

EXTENT OF LISTING:

External form, materials and details of this Victorian masonry residence, including the walls and roof form associated with the house style.

NOTE: The 'Description of Place and Elements of Heritage Value' listed in the Adelaide (City) Development Plan for this property is as follows:

House - Frontage and side wall returns visible from the street

This is the legally recognised listing and should be used for the purposes of development application assessment
