HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION:

This house is an excellent example of an 1870s-1880s single fronted masonry residence. It retains important stylistic elements including rendered quoins and facings to windows and doors and eaves brackets.

The outline of this house shows on the Smith Survey of 1880 as one of a run of four single fronted cottages along Melbourne Street. This house remains an important indication of the type of residences constructed at that time.

STATEMENT OF HERITAGE VALUE:

This house is an important example of the type of residences constructed in North Adelaide during the 1870s-1880s, and reflects the design, details and building materials commonly in use at that time.

The significant number of stone and brick residences, like this house, constructed between 1870 and 1890 throughout this section of the city, are an important element of the distinctive historic residential character of North Adelaide.

RELEVANT CRITERIA (under Section 23(4) of the Development Act, 1993):

- (a) This house displays historical and social themes that are of importance to North Adelaide as it represents the continued construction of residences on recently subdivided Town Acres, particularly during the 1870s-1880s.
- (d) This asymmetrically fronted house displays aesthetic merit and design characteristics of significance to North Adelaide as it is a typical 1870s-1880s Victorian residence displaying consistent use of materials such as masonry walls and detailed render.

EXTENT OF LISTING:

External form, materials and details of this Victorian single fronted cottage, including the walls and roof form associated with the house style. Excludes later porch.

NOTE: The 'Description of Place and Elements of Heritage Value' listed in the Adelaide (City) Development Plan for this property is as follows:

House
Victorian single fronted cottage. Excludes later porch

This is the legally recognised listing and should be used for the purposes of development application assessment
