HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION:

This pair of houses is an excellent example of semi-detached 1870s single fronted sandstone cottages. It retains important stylistic elements including rendered quoins and facings to windows and doors, verandah with cast iron decorative bracket and frieze elements, eaves brackets.

The outline of this pair of attached houses is visible in Town Acre 1011 in the Smith Survey of 1880. It remains an important indication of the type of residences constructed at that time, and the use of South Australian sandstone as a building material.

STATEMENT OF HERITAGE VALUE:

This pair of houses is an important example of the type of residences constructed in North Adelaide during the 1870s-1880s, and reflects the design, details and building materials characteristic at that time.

The significant number of stone and brick residences, like this pair of houses, constructed between 1870 and 1890 throughout this section of the city, are an important element of the distinctive historic residential character of North Adelaide.

RELEVANT CRITERIA (under Section 23(4) of the Development Act, 1993):

- (a) This single fronted pair of houses displays historical and social themes that are of importance to North Adelaide as it represents the continued construction of residences on recently subdivided Town Acres, particularly during the 1870s.
- (d) This single fronted pair of houses displays aesthetic merit and design characteristics of significance to North Adelaide as it is a typical single fronted 1870s Victorian semi-detached cottage displaying consistent use of characteristic materials such as sandstone, decorative cast iron and detailed render.

EXTENT OF LISTING:

External form, materials and details of this Victorian single fronted pair of cottages, including walls, verandah and roof form associated with the house style.
